

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the Times."

Three iron-clads—the Tennessee, Nashville, and Osage—were sold at auction at New Orleans a few days since for twenty one thousand dollars. The New Orleans Picayune says: "One of these vessels—the Nashville—lies sunk near the bank. Two of them—the Tennessee and Nashville—were celebrated Confederate rams, the former, almost unaided and alone, commanded by Admiral Buchanan, having encountered and fought the immense Federal fleet of iron and wooden ships, commanded by Admiral Farragut in Mobile Bay."

Three desperadoes entered the First National Bank at Independence, Missouri, on Tuesday last, and while one remained at the door the other two rifled the safe and drawers of all moneys. William McCoy, cashier, and a clerk named Bayes were then locked in the vault, where they remained two hours. Some citizens passing by, hearing an unusual noise in the bank, caused by pounding on the vault floor, released them.

A swindler calling himself R. S. Coleman, bearing a forged letter of introduction from H. B. Chaffin, of New York, has obtained six thousand dollars in currency from the First National Bank of Charleston, besides a check for one thousand dollars on the National Bank of Augusta, Georgia, by depositing a check on the First National Bank of New York, and Suffolk National Bank of Boston. He decamped last Monday.

An extensive conflagration occurred on Sunday evening at the foot of 42d street, East River, New York. Sixty thousand feet of cedar wood piled around the lead pencil factory of E. Faber, was partially destroyed, and what was not consumed was rendered valueless. The loss, $50,000, is only partially covered by insurance.

The various branches of trade interested in the internal revenue tax on spirits, met in New York Saturday, and elected a delegation to attend the Washington convention, which meets on the 11th of December. This is the fourth delegation of business men that has been appointed from that city.

The Pardon Clerk, under the direction of the Attorney General, is engaged in preparing an opinion of about three columns in length, sustaining and justifying the action of the President in pardoning some persons who were convicted of counterfeiting the National securities.

On Monday, the 9th day of December, 1867, at 11 o'clock A. M., eight hundred ($800) shares of stock owned by the United States in the Dismal Swamp Canal Company will be sold at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the Treasury Department, in the city of Washington.

The American steamship line to Havre, consisting of the Arago and Fulton, owing to the insufficiency of patronage, and the fact that the Government has failed to grant a subsidy to assist in maintaining an American line of steamers, has been suspended.

The Kirkwood Hotel, at Kirkwood, fifteen miles west of St. Louis, was burned Saturday night, and nearly all the furniture destroyed. The building was insured for $18,000 and the furniture $6,000. The actual loss by the fire is not ascertained.

One Samuel Chase Barney has asked Congress to change his name because his father and uncle had disgraced it; and Congress has granted his request! The petitioner claims to be a grandson of Commodore Barney.

Edwin Forrest begins an engagement of a week in Baltimore this evening, and then comes to Washington, where he will play two weeks; after which he will go to Richmond, and thence to the different Southern cities.

All the railroads in Virginia have now agreed to return free all delegates to the Radical and Conservative Conventions, who pay fare to Richmond.

It is stated that Treasurer Spinner will soon propose to Congress to sell all the stock now held in trust for the Smithsonian Institution, the Indian annuities, &c., and to place the avails in the Treasury.

Mr. Dickens commences his first series of readings in New York on the 9th of December. He designs to give some twenty readings in that city.

Messrs. Ticknor & Fields, the Boston publishers, have issued a new edition of Charles Dickens's former American Notes.

Two deaths from drowning, and several narrow escapes of skaters, occurred in Lewistown, Maine, on Thanksgiving Day.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN HANOVER CO. At an usually large meeting of the citizens of Hanover county, held at the court house, on the 26th ult., Mr. George W. Doswell was called to the chair, and C. St. George Noland appointed secretary.

On motion of Colonel White, a committee of one from each magisterial district was appointed to report business for the meeting. The committee, composed of Dr. L. B. Anderson, Col. J. Christian White, Col. W. R. Winn, D. C. E. Thompson, Mr. J. H. Taliaferro, and Mr. E. W. Morris, reported through their chairman, Dr. Anderson, the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

1. Resolved, That we solemnly avow our uncompromising allegiance to the Constitution of the United States, and all laws passed in accordance therewith.

2. That we desire to act justly, honorably and kindly to all citizens of the United States, and to all who are of the same color.

3. That we deem the universal enfranchisement of the colored people of this State, and the disfranchisement of any of the whites who are willing to take the amnesty oath, as fraught with calamities so dire and appalling as to demand the most untiring efforts of all good citizens to defeat it.

4. To this end, we will appoint delegates from each magisterial district of the county to the Conservative Convention to assemble in Richmond on the 11th of December, to devise ways and means to attain this object, and any other which may be deemed essential to the interest and welfare of our people and State.

5. That while we will use all constitutional and honorable means in our power to consummate this end, we frankly avow our conviction that our only hope of safety, under God, resides in the hands of the great Democratic and Conservative masses of the North, and to them we would earnestly raise the Macedonian cry, "Brethren, come over and help us!"

To-morrow the Radical Convention will assemble in Richmond, in conformity to the requirements of the reconstruction acts,

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Allen, delegate to the State Convention from Prince Edward county, applied to the last court for that county for a certificate of character, on which he might obtain license to practice law. The court did not feel itself warranted in certifying that he was a man of honest demeanor, and rejected the application.

During the recent canvass for members of the Convention, in classifying the candidates, Mr. John Woltz, of Roanoke, was styled a Radical. Mr. W. denies that he was or is radical, and denounces radicalism. He declares that he was and is conservative in his opinions.

The following witnesses have been examined on the Davis indictment: Gen. Lee, ex-Secretary Seddon, Gen. Hickman, Hon. John Letcher, George W. Munford, John B. Baldwin, ex-Speaker of the late Confederate Congress, and Gen. T. S. Haymond.

The U. S. Circuit Court in Richmond will adjourn to-day until the adjournment of the Reconstruction Convention which meets there on Tuesday. Many delegates have arrived, and a caucus of the Radical members will be held to-day.

McCracken & Brother, in Fredericksburg, have begun the importation of Northern white laborers. There was one arrival on Tuesday. Mr. Leichenstern has brought on four white men to work on his farm, an of whom is a blacksmith. He will bring on others.

The suit of Steinbock & Co. against Claflin & Co., of New York, for two hundred and fifty thousand dollars damages, for closing them upon an attachment, commenced in Richmond last week.

There was a large fire at Portsmouth on Saturday night. Two four-story brick houses, the property of Mr. Bentley, were burned down.

The Commissioner of West Virginia on Saturday signed the agreement relative to the construction of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad. It was formed in Richmond yesterday.

Conservative Meeting in Fairfax Co.

On Saturday, November 30th, 1867, a meeting of the citizens of Fairfax county, to appoint delegates to the Conservative Convention to be held in Richmond, on the 11th December, convened at the Court House, pursuant to call.

On motion, Thomas Moore was called to the Chair, and R. H. Cokerille appointed Secretary. The names of the following gentlemen were then unanimously agreed on as delegates:

First District—Jas. P. Machen, Jas. Sangster, Metrah Makely.
Second District—J. C. Denty, F. C. Davis, John A. Marshall.
Third District—Wm. Hunter, Ed. C. Gibbs, A. C. Landstreet.

Fourth District—Major H. P. Burroughs, N. D. Shepherd, Lewis Bailey.
Fifth District—M. A. Cummins, Jacob Snoot, G. T. Reynolds.

Sixth District—Thos. E. Carper, John Powell, H. M. Ross.
For the County at Large—Thomas Holden, M. O'Brien, M. D. Ball, Alexander Innis, Patrick Cunningham, S. T. Stuart.

On motion the Chairman and Secretary were added to the number.

On motion, it was resolved that the proceedings of the meeting be published in the Alexandria Gazette and Richmond Enquirer. The meeting then adjourned.

THOMAS MOORE, Chairman.
R. H. COKERILLE, Secretary.

AN INTERESTING INCIDENT.—Quite an interesting incident took place at the Catholic orphans' fair room, on Main street, Thursday night last. Mr. Jefferson Davis, accompanied by Judge Ould, visited the fair on that night, and whilst he was enjoying the delicacies at the supper table, the ladies and gentlemen present agreed to raffie off a most beautiful cigar stand with a musical box attached, which had been sent, with many other handsome articles, from Brussels, Belgium, the winner to present it to him. The raffie occurred, and the prize was won by a gentleman from Baltimore, Mr. M., who requested that Miss M. C. H., the interesting young lady who was instrumental in getting up the raffie, should present it in the name of those who had contributed. Miss H., approaching the once President, said:

"Mr. Davis—in the name and at the request of the gentlemen who won the prize, and of those ladies and gentlemen who contributed, I present you this token of our respect for you, the former President of the late Confederate States. We only wish we had something more worthy of your acceptance, but, after looking around the table, find nothing more suitable, and though small the gift, we hope you will accept it. We wish from our hearts every blessing for yourself and family."

In reply, Mr. Davis said: "I thank you and the ladies and gentlemen for your kindness, and will place this with the gold-headed cane presented to me by the Catholic ladies of Norfolk, who held a fair for a charitable purpose last spring. Your kindness will not be forgotten. The Catholics have always been my friends, and I cannot forget the circumstance that the Holy Father, the head of your Church, was the first sovereign who sent me his blessing in my misfortunes. May God bless you all!"

After which, Mr. Davis departed, amidst the adieus and blessings of those present.—Rich. Whig.

FIRE IN GEORGETOWN.—About 1 o'clock yesterday morning Officer Harper, of Georgetown, discovered fire issuing from a frame shed located on the wharf owned by Messrs. J. B. Davidson & Co., on Water street, between High and Congress street. The fire, originated in the frame office of Messrs. Davidson & Co.; and in a few minutes a large frame building, owned by Mr. Riley A. Shinn, and occupied by him as a storage-house for a large amount of vinegar, acids, and other material, was entirely destroyed, with a loss to Mr. Shinn of about $6,000. The fire soon spread to a shed owned by Mr. Davidson, and used for storing freights from the Philadelphia and New York steamers, of which he is the agent. In this shed was packed a large amount of freight, which had arrived by late steamers, consigned to merchants of this city and Georgetown, which was totally destroyed. A large lot of mahogany owned by the Government was also destroyed. A shed owned by Mrs. Pickrell and occupied by Mr. McGan was also totally consumed. It is impossible at this time to give even an estimate of the losses of Messrs. Davidson & Co. The fire is said to have been the work of an incendiary.—Nat. Int.

Warren, Halpice, and Castello, the Fenian prisoners who were sentenced to imprisonment for a term of years, were on Saturday brought from Dublin to Pentonville to suffer their sentences. They were handcuffed and strongly guarded.

The proposed income tax to pay the expenses of the Abyssinian war passed to a second reading in the British House of Commons, on Saturday.

There was a large meeting in Berlin on Saturday, at which American politics and finances were discussed. T. S. Fay, an American, severely attacked Thaddeus Stevens as a demagogue and repudiator, and denied that his views were those of the American people. His speech from Naples says that Versutus, which has been smouldering for a long time, is now in a grand state of eruption.

In the Austrian Reichstath, a draft for a new constitution has been accepted, after a strenuous resistance by the Liberals.

Italy has not yet acceded to the proposed conference. An official note has been sent to France, asking certain explanations. The final answer of Italy will depend on the nature of Napoleon's reply.

There is considerable excitement at a Fenian outbreak being feared at Manchester, where arms have been seized by the police authorities. Only one arrest has been made. Dispatches from Cork, make mention of serious apprehensions there also.

The Marquis Moutier, on Saturday, addressing the French Senate, said, the stay of the French troops now in the Roman territory would be brief, and was only intended to insure the safety of the Pope. The question between the Holy See and Italy was one of distrust, and the object of the European interference proposed by the Emperor was the removal of this distrust.

The Prussian Government has signed a new contract with the Hamburg and American Steamship Company and North German Lloyd's Steamship Company, for the regular mail service between Hamburg and Bremen and New York. Many additional facilities are given to the public, and special provision is made for the transmission of samples of merchandise by mail.

News from Brazil is that the allied cavalry had made an attack on the Paraguayan forces. Brazilian reports of the fight say Lopez lost 1,000 killed and 200 prisoners, while the loss of the allies was only 80 killed.

Yesterday the obsequies of Allen, Gould, and Larkin were observed in Manchester, with much solemnity by the Irish inhabitants. The funeral procession marched through the streets, and a meeting was held. No attempts were made to interfere, and no disturbance occurred.

A great demonstration of sympathy for the Fenians executed at Manchester was made in Cork. The ceremonies were similar to those held in London. The funeral procession was very long and imposing. It was headed by a lofty catafalque, trimmed with green and black, and drawn by six horses. This was followed by nearly twenty thousand persons, most of whom wore green emblems shrouded with crape. Over fifteen hundred women took part in the procession, and several priests were observed marching in the ranks. Good order prevailed throughout the day.

VALUABLE

CO. UNTRY SEAT, BETWEEN WASHINGTON AND ALEXANDRIA. LAND AND CITY LOTS, AND PRIVATE SALES.

The estate called WARWICK, four miles from Washington city, and two from Alexandria, on the railroad, a turnpike between the two cities.

The property will be sold in three parts, viz: 1. FIFTY-SIX ACRES, with BRICK DWELLING containing 11 rooms, and out-buildings. On this land, an orchard in full bearing; a market garden, grapes, shrubbery, forest and ornamental trees, and a never failing well of excellent water. The junction station of the Washington and Alexandria, with the Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad, is within a few minutes' walk. The scenery and view of unsurpassed beauty and the surrounding unexceptionable.

2. THIRTY-EIGHT ACRES of fine meadow land, about fifty yards from the junction and 100 from the Canal, separated from No. 1 by the Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad. This is excellent land for grain and hay, and for market gardening.

3. TWENTY-FIVE ACRES on the old Leeburg road, about midway between the Theological Seminary and Alexandria. The view from this station is beautiful and extensive, and the neighborhood very agreeable.

The above property will be shown by the family residing at Warwick.

Also, the following lots in Alexandria: ONE ACRE, adjoining the Loudoun and Hampshire depot, bounded by Pendleton, Fairfax and Water streets.

ONE ACRE, on the south side of Madison street, extending from Fairfax to Royal st.

ONE ACRE, on the south side of Montgomery street, a few yards from the Canal Basin, and extending from Washington to St. Asaph street. A part of said lot is occupied by the Washington and Alexandria Railroad.

A lot on the south side of Queen street, between Patrick
